Howard Scott Splane Dies; Funeral Today

Funeral services were to be held at 11:30 A.M. at St. John's Church, Tucson, in honor of an actor who died Friday while shooting a movie in Mexico. Mr. Splane, 34, who lived in Los Angeles, was hit by a train in Mexico City and died. He was a native of New York and a graduate of Cornell U.

He was a native of this country, but had lived in Mexico for many years. He was survived by his wife, Mrs. John S. Splane, and their daughter, Mrs. John S. Splane, who reside in Los Angeles.

The services were to be held at St. John's Church, 5345 N. 2nd St., and at a church in Mexico City.

PLACITA GROUPS MEET

Dramatic Plaza Plans Called For

Plans for a plaza, which Mr. Howard S. Splane, a native of Arizona, has been making for several years, were discussed by the executive committee of the State of Arizona.

Mr. Splane said he was interested in the project and would like to see it go forward.

Paul's Episcopal Memorial Restoration Committee met to discuss the future of the State of Arizona.

The committee decided to pursue the project, but admitted it would take a lot of money to get started.

The committee also discussed the possibility of a statewide referendum on the issue.

Sen. Howard S. Splane, a Democrat, proposed a statewide referendum on the project.

The referendum would ask voters if they wanted to fund the project through a statewide sales tax.
