Lonborg, Yaz Lead Sox Win
Boston Takes One-Hitter, 5-0

BOSTON — Right-hander Jim Lonborg pitched a one-hitter and Red Sox fans were cheering as he left the mound in the seventh inning Wednesday night after he had completed five innings.

Lonborg, pitching smoothly and skillfully, faced 27 batters and faced four times, out in 31 straight innings. He fanned some of the best batters in the AL, including Carl Yastrzemski, who hit the right field stand.

The Red Sox were 16 games above the .500 mark, and Lonborg, known as the best pitcher in the AL, is expected to win more games later this season.

The Red Sox won 11 games in a row.

A Beautiful Tuscon Day
There's not a cloud in the sky.

This weather is perfect.

U. Texas

We should have a Perfect Day, not the day of the storm, as should the rest of the state.
